What a special morning for Sharon Richardson!

Just prior to her retirement, Sharon joined Matthew Pantelis on FIVEAA this morning to look back on an incredible 54 years with Andersons Solicitors.

Sharon spoke beautifully about her remarkable career, highlighting the people and experiences that have made her time at Andersons so special. To make the moment even more memorable, Sharon's husband, Ian, also joined the conversation on air!

Thank you to Matthew Pantelis and the team at FIVEAA for giving Sharon the opportunity to share her story and celebrate such an incredible achievement.
